Dear Parent/Carer

Relationship and Sex Education

It is a statutory requirement that we teach Relationship Sex Education (RSE). At Furrowfield School, we believe that Relationship and Sex Education (RSE) is vital for the personal, social and emotional development of our students. We believe that through providing high quality RSE, we are upholding the ethos and values of our school and its commitment to equality and celebration of difference.

The aims of the policy are as follows:

- to enable our children and young people to better understand the nature of relationships
- to help children and young people to develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy
- to create a positive culture around issues of sexuality and relationships
- to enable children and young people to understand the importance of stable loving relationships, including marriage, for the bringing up of children
- to prepare children and young students for the changes that occur to their bodies, minds and emotions as a consequence of growth from childhood to adulthood
- to know about the risks of being online and how to stay safe from exploitation
- to support all young people for life in modern Britain.

However, you are entitled to withdraw your child from the topic of sex education. If so, please complete the attached form and return to school.

Yours faithfully

Miss H E Scott
